

Empty Bowls

Dinner and Silent Auction

Second Annual Empty Bowl Event Supporting Bethlehem Food Bank

Saturday November 7th, 2015 4:00 pm – 7:00 pm

Church of the Nativity, Shellman Hall, Bethlehem, CT

What is Empty Bowls?

This collaboration between 550 Gallery and Studio, Litchfield Hills Church, First Church, Christ Episcopal Church, Church of the Nativity, in addition to local restaurants including Big Daddy's, Little Town Deli, Main St Grill, Nick's, Painted Pony, Rathskeller, The Bethlehem Fair, and Wellspring will help the current needs of Bethlehem families and elders.

Please see www.emptybowls.net for the history of this project.

How it Works

- Purchase a pre-registered ticket for $14 or at the door for $16
- Come to the Church of the Nativity Saturday Nov 7th between 4pm and 7pm
- Pick out a beautiful and unique handmade bowl
- Fill your bowl with one of seven soups and enjoy a light supper of bread and soup
- Bid on local art, gift certificates, and local products at the Silent Auction~ original art by many local artists~ including prints by Bob Crawford, handmade wooden bowls by Pat Griffin, handmade glass bowls by Kim McGrath, and pottery by Linda White, Mary Troiano, Jan Lesnikowski, Seth Heddu, Ben Galick and Dave Santamaria.

After dinner, proceed to 550 Main St. South to 550 Gallery and Studios for dessert and pottery making demonstrations.

To reserve your spot, register early by detaching and returning the lower part of this form.

Number of bowls _____ X $14 = Total amount enclosed $ _____

Name _____

Phone _____

Address _____

Email _____

Checks made payable to the Town of Bethlehem Food Bank
and sent to: PO Box 160 Bethlehem CT 06751

Any questions about the event please contact Vera Rosa at 203 266-5605 or go to rosavera13@yahoo.com . More info can be found on Facebook at 550 Gallery and Studios