What is Empty Bowls?

This collaboration between 550 Gallery and Studios, Litchfield Hills Church, First Church, Christ Episcopal Church, Church of the Nativity, in addition to local restaurants including Big Daddy's, Little Town Deli, Nick's, Painted Pony, Rathskeller (Southbury), Main Street Grill (Watertown), The Bethlehem Fair and Wellspring will help the current needs of Bethlehem families and elders.

Please see www.emptybowls.net for the history of this project.

How it Works

- ● Purchase a preregistered ticket for $14 or pay at the door for $16
- ● Come to the Church of the Nativity Saturday November 12th between 4pm and 7pm
- ● Pick out a beautiful and unique handmade bowl
- ● Fill your bowl with one of over seven soup varieties & enjoy a light supper of bread and soup
- ● Bid on local art, gift certificates, and local products at the Silent Auction

After dinner, proceed to 550 Main St South to The 550 Gallery and Studios for dessert and pottery making demonstrations.

To reserve your spot, register early by detaching and returning the lower part of this form. Must be postmarked by November 4, 2016
