What is Empty Bowls?

This collaboration between 550 Gallery and Studios, Connecticut Wells, Bethlehem Masonry and Supply, Litchfield Hills Church, First Church, Christ Episcopal Church, Church of the Nativity...in addition to local restaurants including Big Daddy's, Little Town Deli, Nick's, Oliva's, Painted Pony, The Bethlehem Fair, Watertown Meat Center, Wellspring and others will help the current needs of Bethlehem families and elders.

Please see www.emptybowls.net for the history of this project.

How it Works

- Purchase a pre-registered ticket for $15 or pay at the door for $17
- Come to the Church of the Nativity Saturday September 23, 2017 between 12 noon and 3 pm
- Pick out a beautiful and unique handmade bowl
- Fill your bowl with one of over seven soup varieties & enjoy a light lunch of bread and soup
- Bid on local art, gift certificates, and local products at the Silent Auction

After lunch, proceed to 550 Main St South to The 550 Gallery and Studios for dessert and pottery making demonstrations.

To reserve your spot, register early by detaching and returning the lower part of this form. Must be postmarked by September 13, 2017
